

Day work and road closure on Church Street St Peters from Monday 13 August for approximately eight weeks

A road closure is required for approximately eight weeks on Church Street at the Campbell Street intersection, to finalise construction of the new road and footpath on the southern section of Campbell Street.

What we're doing

Work will be carried out to finalise the new road and footpath on the southern side of Campbell Street from Crown Street, across Princes Highway, to Brown Street over a period of approximately eight weeks. A road closure is required on Church Street at the intersection of Campbell Street in connection with this work.

Work will take place during standard construction hours, Monday to Friday 7am - 6pm and Saturday 8am - 1pm. If work is required outside of standard construction hours you will be notified in advance. Please note: the road closure will remain in place day and night for the duration of the work from 7am Monday 13 August for approximately eight weeks.

Similar work is due to take place on St Peters Street and Florence Street at the intersection of Campbell Street in the coming weeks. A notification with further details about work in these locations will be distributed prior to the work commencing when dates have been confirmed.

Once the new road and footpath is complete on the southern side of Campbell Street from Crown Street, across Princes Highway, to Brown Street, traffic will move onto this section of road. The construction site compounds will move from the southern side of Campbell Street to the northern side to construct the new road and footpath on the northern side.

There will be some remaining work on the southern side of Campbell Street and surrounding streets such as road surface finishing work and landscaping to take place before Project completion in 2020.

Please see map overleaf for traffic changes on Church Street from Monday 13 August for approximately eight weeks.
